Flow Tech nologies	The company was founded on 06 August 2020, after two years working for a Tech Start up! Had come to the realization that I am in love with software development, Instead of working for a company I had a dream to do it for myself, and my community, this would enable me to put my focus on ideas that I saw as innovative and would better South Africa, and I was able to follow this passion because I am not driven by the monthly income instead by my love for innovation and development. In 5 years I hope to be in a position to groom more South African software developers who are driven by innovation and bettering South Africa, I hope to be in a position to employ Software developers and also meet their income requirements whilst creating an environment that supports more South African Tech creatives to work on projects for the betterment of our country. In 10 years I plan to have one of the biggest Software Development Companies in South Africa that can internationally compete with other companies around the world. GreenGold Technologies	aquaculture company based in Verulam, Durban, South Africa. We farm a fish called Tilapia for local commercial sales and grow microorganisms such as phytoplankton and zooplankton for fish feed. Our company won the Youth Innovation challenge for our innovative phytoplankton filtration design. GreenGold Technology sought to address the problems that exist with traditional fish farming which include high chemical usage and waste levels. This waste can cause serious harm to the environment and natural ecosystems. Therefore, GreenGold Technology developed a farming methodology that is environmentally sustainable based on a closed loop system. In this system, there exists a symbiotic relationship between fish and phytoplankton (a microorganism) where one tank contains fish which produce harmful waste products such as carbon dioxide and ammonia.	Govindsamy +27 769101 383 joashgovindsamy@gmail.com	m/watch?v=zk-0mfPohc&amp;t=73s

	which everyone, everywhere, has access to connection and information. In order to achieve this we have developed a device called The Prime that enables people to access and stream content for free - without the use of Data #dataless streaming. Initially it was developed as a solution to increase local content consumption because we understood that the problem was the ridiculously high cost of Data - so we figured let's solve that problem and eliminate the need for data entirely - and Bamm - came the Prime. Then we realized that there is some much more that we could apply the innovation to and this led to our journey of innovation. The Prime is around the size of a cell phone and it works like wifi. It broadcasts a network that enables people to connect and access content - we are able to curate, regulate
